Dear [Redacted]

This letter is to confirm that analysts from the Central Intelligence Agency will present a closed briefing on the "World Oil Outlook" for Members and staff of the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources on Tuesday, January 20, 1987. The briefing will commence at 2:00 p.m. in Room 219 of the Hart Senate Office Building.

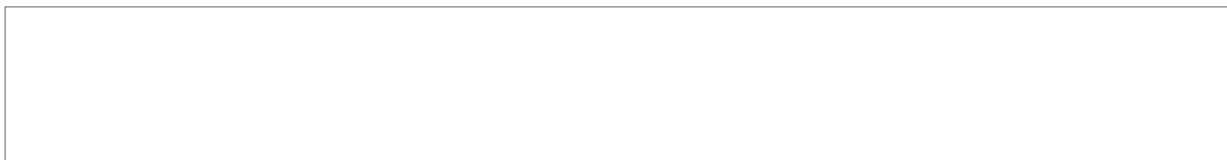

You should come prepared to give an opening presentation lasting approximately half an hour, to be followed by questions from the Committee Members. The briefing should focus on the current situation in the Middle East, including a discussion of both the military situation and the oil supply situation. We urge you to address the topic of the hearing as you see fit, but we would expect to focus to some extent on the following:

I am pleased that you will be able to provide the briefing and am looking forward to a very informative session. As you requested, we will provide you with the list of staff members that we expect to attend prior to the briefing. Any questions about the briefing or other arrangements should be directed to Betsy Moler, Senior Counsel to the Committee. She can be reached at 224-0612.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

J. Bennett Johnston
Chairman
